OBJECTIVE | To obtain employment as a junior linux administrator with Corvid Technologies.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

Java Language proficient

C/C++ Language proficient

Unix/Linux proficient

User level experience with military Linux/Unix based software

Experienced manager as Staff Non-Commissioned Officer in the Military

EXPERIENCE | MINEMAN FIRST CLASS US NAVY FROM 2007 TO 2015

Self-starter, while performing routine maintenance I noticed a defect in my assigned equipment which lead me to familiarize myself with its inner working and corrected the problem. Going beyond the scope of my responsibility saved my command over $50,000 in repair costs.

Meticulous, by observing the strict safety protocols and provided guidance, I trained over 78,000 new personnel in firearms safety and conducted live fire qualifications with no safety mishaps.

Professional, I have received multiple awards and military decorations based on my abilities and professionalism during stressful situations. I was selected as the top overall sailor in my rank by a board of my superiors for the entire year.

EDUCATION | CLEMSON UNIVERSITY, CLEMSON, SC BACHELORS OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

I am a current student and expect to graduate in the Spring of 2019.

COMMUNICATION | I received journey man training as an instructor for the military and went on to receive the highest available qualification of Master Training Specialist. I have delivered and developed training for small groups and large organizational subjects which included a wide variety of topics.

LEADERSHIP | I have successfully lead organizations that range from a few members to several hundred in hazardous and stressful situations and achieved a high level of sustained performance. At my last organization, I was elected by a board of my peers to serve as Vice-President of a rank based professional group involved in command leadership.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITY

INSTRUCTOR, VOLUNTEER INSTRUCTOR
UNITED STATES NAVAL SEA CADET CORPS

I worked with a large group of children who showed a possible interest in someday joining the military. I provided guidance and shared the wealth of knowledge I obtained from my service to children of varying ages and skill sets. The amount of time and duration of service resulted in receiving a Meritorious Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal for the time I dedicated.
